

GOING SHOPPING

This is Anne. She is 31 years old.
She is married
and has little boy.

Every Saturday she does the shopping.

First, she goes to the baker's. She buys some bread but she doesn't buy any cakes.

Next, she goes to the butcher's. She buys some chicken and sausages but she doesn't buy any steak.

Then she remembers she needs some fish and she stops at the fishmonger's. She buys some salmon but she doesn't buy any seafood.

Her son loves fruit so she goes to the greengrocer's. She buys some peaches, cherries and strawberries but she doesn't buy any vegetables.

Finally, she goes to the shopping centre to buy a present for her mother. Today is November 21st and it's her mother's birthday. She buys some perfume for her but she doesn't buy any make-up.
